"The book is well written and understandable for anyone with even minimal investing experience." -JCS

"One of the best books on dividend growth investing. I wish I had known about this 10 years ago as I compared my tax-free bonds versus dividend growth investing would have doubled my portfolio if I had followed his books advice." -David

"Thank you for clarifying my thoughts about individual stocks. My stocks have more than quadrupled over the mutual funds which I have had to use the proceeds to live on in my retirement." -Gloria

"An investment strategy that makes sense. The book is short and to the point. Reading it will be time well spent. "

"Dividend investing is an overlooked strategy, and the author makes a very powerful case for why it's the safest way to invest in stock market. It's not a get rich quick scheme, and it's not about speculating which stocks will double their values. It's about investing in stable, historically high-performing companies that pay their earnings out to shareholders. Companies like Johnson & Johnson, Coca-Cola, and others. I'm already employing the strategy in my own investments, but this book gave me a lot of confidence that I'm absolutely doing the right thing. It is short, but there's every bit as much content as a much longer book."

Dividend paying stocks over managed funds

By Gloria

Just recently moved from a managed brokerage firm to a discount brokerage firm.

This book just confirms my thoughts on investing in individual stocks versus brokerage advised mutual funds. Each time the market has fluctuated I have noticed my stocks did not go down nearly as much as the mutual funds have. I have been investing for 25+ years and have both mutual funds and dividend paying stocks. After reading this book I am going to be taking my money out of managed mutual funds and put it in the Dividend Kings, Dividend Aristocrats or dividend champions stocks that have consistently paid dividends for years. Thank you for clarifying my thoughts about individual stocks. My stocks have more than quadrupled over the mutual funds which I have had to use the proceeds to live on in my retirement. By building this base in good quality stocks I feel that I can make my own mutual fund cheaper than the brokerage that charges so much in fees each year. I have found they take their money whether I make a dime or not which really stinks.
