and I figured it would be lots of fun to use it for some our lessons in between

By Bruce J Goss III

I have two girls 5 and 8 years old that are big Geronimo fans. They actually found the workbooks on Geronimo's fan page and told me about them. So we were very excited to try one out. We are also a homeschooling family, and I figured it would be lots of fun to use it for some our lessons in between. This workbook goes along with " The Stinky Cheese Vacation", " The Haunted Castle ", " I'm Not a Supermouse " and the " Peculiar Pumpkin Thief ". We didn't read all of them before but the parts shared in the workbook is enough to answer all the questions and still make you curious for the rest of each story ! There are lots of fun little activities along with great pictures ! It's been a fun workbook for in between, my 5 year old is able to answer lots of questions on her own and I hope the other levels will be a little more advanced for my older child. It's not a very big book but for the price it has been great and I'm curious what else the Stilton Academy will come up with !!

Good reading supplement

By MJ

My children are wild about the Geronimo series. I was thrilled to find a learning resource to go along with something they already liked. I like that the workbook quizzes the kids about four different books. It made my kids reread some books and read some they skipped over. The reason I do not give it five stars is I wish Scholastic would have left space to answer the question in the workbook. Yes, I still use notebook paper, but why kill two trees when you could have formatted the book better. Good resource for homeschoolers.
