Just as wonderful as her other patterns

By Wendy Bethel

I've been a big fan of Shelly Down's Gingermelon etsy show for several years now and have purchased many of her wonderful patterns. This lovely book is a perfect introduction to the world of Gingermelon in particular and dollmaking in general. Included are patterns for a 10 inch basic doll with the option of a mermaid tail, different faces and hair, and her 11 different outfits. The dolls and their wardrobe are made primarily from wool or wool blend felt and are sewn entirely by hand, which can be less intimidating to beginners when working on a small scale. There is enough detail to keep a more advanced dollmaker interested, especially when it comes to some of the tiny accessories such as the panda that accompanies the pajama set, or the eensiest little hedgehog that comes with the woodland ensemble. The instructions and templates are so detailed, well written, and clear that even a complete beginner should be able to construct a doll using this book, sewing supplies, and a little imagination. I would recommend this book to dollmakers of all ages and abilities, even dollmakers who haven't made their first doll yet. This book will help you make some of your dollmaking dreams come true!

Dissatisfied digital customer

By Linda McGill

This is a very cute book full of creative ideas. The only problem is you cannot make a copy of any of the patterns when you buy a digital version, making this purchase useless. Do not make the same mistake I did...buy the actual book. The digital copy is useless. You will just be throwing your money away!

Sweet full sized patterns; no need to enlarge which is always a selling point for me.

Waiting for my wool felt to arrive and will make for granddaughters for Christmas.
