Preorder now for a chance to win a VIP trip—complete with a private jet flight to LA—to enjoy a five-star dinner with the Master of Love himself, Spectacular Smith!*

Since Spectacular Smith started sharing his thoughts on love, sex and relationships with millions of followers on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram, fans have been telling him, “You gotta write a book!” So by popular demand—available worldwide for 90 days only—this sharp ebook exclusive lays it on you with a straight up, big brother style that makes Steve Harvey look like Mr. Rogers. Spectacular Love: How to Make Good Love Last will take you less than 90 minutes to read, and it just might change your life.

As a member of Pretty Ricky, the hottest and most controversial boy band of the 2000s, Spectacular Smith was onstage in front of thousands of adoring fans, knowing that after the show, there’d be women lined up for a chance to get with him. “No regrets” is an understatement. For three years, Spec was living the dream of every red-blooded American dude, but one day he simply decided to man up and settle down.

Instead of spending every night with a different woman—or women—Spec wanted to go to bed every night with one person who would be the love of his life, the mother of his children, a partner he could depend on through all the industry BS and the complicated business of being Spectacular. That’s when he met Jamee, a London-born knockout with brains and beauty.

“I didn’t change,” Spec says now. “I grew up.”

Ten years later, Spec is back in the studio and continues to build his social media empire. Jamee insists on keeping her job as an accountant, even though her modeling career is on the rise. As a couple, they’re busier and more in love than ever since the birth of their son, Spectacular Blue Smith, Jr.

“I’m not about telling anybody how to live their life,” says Spec. “I just know what I know because I lived it. Come with me if you want to know what I learned.”

How did they beat the overwhelming odds to build the relationship so many of us want? What does it take to stay grounded in a world that spins as fast as Spec’s? What are the essential elements of a lasting relationship? How does marriage fit into the picture for millennial lovers? And—the big question—are you ready to experience Spectacular Love in your own life?

About the Author

Spectacular Smith is a Forbes Magazine-featured entrepreneur who coaches artists and startups on branding and social media. He also performs in the R&B group Pretty Ricky with his brothers—Pleasure P, Baby Blue and Slick ‘Em. In 2004, their platinum debut album, Bluestars, brought them to national attention with the hit single “Grind On Me.” They followed up with a string of gold and platinum records including “Your Body” and “On the Hotline.” Spec lives in LA with his significant other, Pretty Jamee, and their son, Spec Junior.

A Must-Read! ♥♥?

By Zeandra

I usually don't read books like this because the tone in a lot of these types of books are pretty boring. Spectacular, however, found a way to write a book that was informative and funny at the same time. While you're reading it, you'll feel that Spectacular is a good friend of yours who is simply trying to give you great advice.

OMG READ THIS

By jomama

This book was so funny/entertaining and RIGHT ON about love, dating, fighting with your man/woman, communicating, getting through hard time, and loving thru good times. He tells the story about his love with his girlfriend and their child. In addition to being a famous rapper, he's a man who knows how to be everything for his woman. MEN need to read this! His advice is different from what you hear all the time because he speaks the truth! It didn't take long to read. Binged in one sitting. I laughed, got mad, had tears in my eye one or two times. I'll be smarter about love having read this!

You need to read this.

By Autumn Westwood

I don't normally like to read books on relationships, I never feel like I can relate to them and I feel like the author is talking down to the reader. Spectacular's take on relationships is not only applicable to anyone, it also offers perfect solutions to issues that every in a relationship has. Definitely an amazing read
